Piracy in text Book

884. DR. MOHD. HASHIM KIDWAI: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that abridged edition of prescribed text books are being sold at exorbitant prices in Delhi; and

(b) if so, what action has been taken by Government against this piracy in books?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI L. P. SHAHI): (a) No such instance has come to the notice of the Government.

(b) Does not arise. The Indian Copyright Act, 1957 provides for stringent unishment for infringement of Copyright. Since Copyright is a proprietory right, it for the owner of Copyright to initiate suitable remedial action, according to the provisions of the Act.

Complaints against railway enquiries Lucknow junction

885. DR. MOHD. HASHIM KIDWAI: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there are a number of complaints against the railway enquiries of Lucknow junction (Northern Railway), Kanpur Central, to the effect that they do not attend to public queries and put away the phone book;

(b) whether the matter has been brought to the notice of Government several times by a number of Members of Parliament; and

(c) what remedial measures, Government propose to undertake to put an end to this public complaint?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MADHAVRAO SCINDIA): (a) and (b) No, Sir. During the last six months only one complaint was received about non-attending to telephone calls at Enquiry Office at Lucknow.

(c) The functioning of all the Enquiry Offices including Lucknow and Kanpur Central is closely monitored. Surprise calls are made by Senior Officers and Supervisors and staff found wanting in discharge of their duties are suitably punished.
